FIRE ROUTS GUESTS OF HOTEL

Owner of Building Accuses Former Tenant as Incendiary
Because of Grudge.

Following sensational charges of fire made by Jim Brown, who owns the damaged building at Forsyth and Balton streets, detectives Wednesday began a thorough probe of the fire which did between $5,000 and $8,000 damage.

Brown's soda fountain, Williams
House No. 2, and the Southern Dry Company, all were damaged and the fire nearly cost the life of Dr. G.
Ford, a dentist, who was dragged unconscious from his rooms over the edge.

Brown charges that the man he accuses set fire to the building to satisfy a grudge. He was held in jail over from the place a week ago for non-payment of rent. Detectives have not yet been able to find any evidence that would corroborate the man and have let the fire burn, then proposed thoroughly to investigate Brown's accusation.

When the fire was discovered at 4:30 a. m. Wednesday morning, the exterior of the cafe was shabbi and for a time friends feared the entire block bounded by Forsyth, Martin and Walton streets was in flames.

James Brown, who was the first to discover the fire, was the first to dash up the stairs and the walls and into the office and living rooms of Dr. G. Ford, above the cafe, destroying most of his office equipment.

Dr. Ford was found in bed, unconscious, and a policeman who broke the window. He was carried to the ground, where Dr. G. G. Hall, city physician, worked over him for half an hour before he regained consciousness.

Half a hundred guests of the James House No. 2, and the Southern Dry Company, were burned by the smoke, and died in the smoke, and fled into the street in their night clothing. Only slight damage was done to the hotel, the firemen preventing the flames from spreading into that building.

The fixtures and a quantity of furniture in the offices of the Southern Dry Company, which is between the cafe and the hotel, were badly damaged by the smoke.

Girls, Rival for Man,
To Paint His Picture,
Best One to Win Him

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The romance of a painting duel in which two young girls students of the Art Institute are to each paint a picture of the man they love, the girl whose picture is won to be the man's a life partner, was known to day.

DEFENSE LAWYERS AND DORSEY BOTH CONFIDENT OF VICTORY BEFORE ROAN

It is the opinion of the court that the trial will be made of Fisher's defense to some extent. The attorneys for Leo M. Frank will be the furnishers of the defense, and the defense will be conducted by them.

Solicitor Dorsey and Reuben Arnolds were in conference Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of coming to an agreement on the exact grounds on which the new trial would be argued. The Solicitor objected to a number of contentions advanced by the defense and these were left to the decision of Judge Roan.

Frank Lawyers to Aid in Search for Fisher Plot

In the effort to solve the mystery of the alleged conspiracy out of which the tale of Ira W. Fisher arose, the defense lawyers, with the man who has his name, the attorneys for Leo M. Frank will assist the furnishers of the defense, and the defense will be conducted by them.

He said he would find the address of Joe Hickey, the Birmingham man who was with Fisher in the office of C. E. Bowden, the Birmingham lawyer, which created such a sensation.

I am perfectly willing to do my share to find out who is responsible. If I am successful in my search, I will do all I can to have the parties convicted," said Burke.

He continued, puffing at cigarettes, and giving indications of a breakdown. Fisher remains in jail at the station house. A hearing will be given him some time to-day, but he expresses no fear of it, asserting his innocence.

Frank's strong belief in the minds of the officers that Fisher will break his silence and reveal the real reason of his fainting—when he was accused of the killing of his own brain or a plot.

Frank Shirley, more bitter toward Fisher than any other man, asserted Shirley is inclined to think that Fisher is crazy. The brothers believe that Fisher is not guilty, but Shirley asserted that they have brought him into the case.

Should Fisher be released it is quite probable he will be sent back to Birmingham, and the defense lawyers will be asked if he would come to Atlanta he would pay his fare back, and he is ready to stand three times.

Fakes Like Fisher Have Kept Attorneys Hustling

Reuben Arnolds, of counsel for Frank, expressed his regret Wednesday that the defense had been made of Fisher's charge.

"If that fellow's story had not reached the newspapers, do you know what would have happened?" he inquired.

The person who neceted Attorney Bowser and Arnolds the worst lie was the man who had been investigated about this murder occurred. When we found out there was nothing to it, we said to him that he was crack-brained or a simpleton, and he drank so much as the case might have been, we simply would have turned him loose.

We have investigated hundreds of cases, and we have never been more startled than Fisher's. As soon as we found out that they were fakes or the result of false imaginations, we dropped them all out of our minds.

He said this fellow went to the chief of police in Birmingham, the police got hold of his story and there was a great deal of talk about it in started people in two States. When it was over, we did what we could have done. I have no doubt that some people began at once to say that it was the Nashvillian man who did it, not realizing that we have punctured the story so completely that the Nashvillian man, and as a result mounted up a bill for telegraph fees.

He supplemented his telegraphic correspondence with letters to the mail. His permanent place was "For Mail," and he was a postman and a mailman. If I were not a postman, he would come to Atlanta at my own expense.

He veiled hint for transportation, mentioned to say, went unobserved.

Every Day Someone

Finds out that the drug, caffeine, in coffee is the cause of headache, nervousness, irritable heart, insomnia or some other obscure ache or pain.

Steady nerves and a clear brain—the best asset any man or woman can have—are often impossible to the regular coffee drinker.

If you are ambitious enough to "get ahead," suppose you stop coffee and try hot, well-made

POSTUM

If the old aches and pains begin to leave after a few days on Postum, you'll know whether to stick to it or go back to coffee troubles.

Postum now comes in two forms:

Regular Postum—must be well boiled.

Instant Postum is a soluble powder. A spoonful dissolves in a cup of hot water, and with sugar and cream makes a delicious beverage instantly.

Drink It instead of coffee...

defenses and openly violated the spirit of the court's ruling.

Frank's first charge came about Friday morning when he came to the factory and when this was ruled out he asked, instead, what Conley had been doing in the factory.

Conley replied that he had been to the door while the women went to Frank's office.

According to the contention of the defense, involved

Frank exactly as much as the previous question and answer would have done.

Dorsey argued that asking Conley about the other movements at the factory was a "gross violation of the spirit of the court's ruling."

Conley was charged with serious negligence because of the overruling of the motion of the defense that all of Conley's testimony should be stricken.

Frank's defense insisted that the photograph should be stricken from the records as irrelevant, immaterial and highly prejudicial to the defendant in that it disgraced him before the jury and convinced them in their eyes not to believe his story of guilty of murder, but because they believed him guilty of perversions and depravity.

The indications Wednesday were that the review of the reasons would not be completed before Friday. After this the trial would be adjourned.

A small room in the State Library in the Capitol Building was the scene of the arguments. Besides the half-dozen lawyers who were trying to keep Frank in the trial, there were two block efforts to keep the convicted man from the gallows and Judge Roan, who was deeply interested in the result of the arguments.

Outside were two dozen curious people who were not allowed in the room.

Judge Roan sat near the center of a long table. To his left was Herbert Haas, Leonard Haas and Robert Arnold, the defense attorneys for the defendant. On the judge's right was Soler Dorsey and his assistant, Solicitor Leonard Steiner.

Lawyer Rosser, big and deep-set as usual, was in the center of the room. The pounding of his heavy feet on the floor always preceded his entry.

A coal fire in a grate warmed the room but was not where the shivering with discomfort volume of old authors.

Financial Sheet in Dispute. A hot dispute over the financial sheet in the brief of the defense was the beginning. The defense was in error to let Defense Attorney Arnold argue that Frank was at the time of his arrest composed and showed no signs of trying to make a comparison with Frank's reference to Lee making no endeavor to escape was stricken out, it is argued that Frank was not interested in the defense.

Defective's Evidence Challenged. The defense, pointing to the defense argued for an error in the trial that the court had erred in letting in the evidence of the conversations between himself and Frank over every reason that he was the hearing. If the hearing is suppressed, it is become evident that unless the opposing attorneys could reach some sort of an armistice, the hearing would last for five or six hours.

Conley defended during a heated argument with the Solicitor that the hearing would drag out two weeks if he continued his objections to every paragraph of the brief.

Arnold, the Rosser, supporting their reasons for a new trial, charged that the stenographers had failed to make a record of many of their objections and the grounds of the objections.

Dorsey defended the stenographers and the recorders, insisting that the effect of the weird story told in the record was to discredit the outcome of the motion as regarded as possible to influence the popular mind one way or another, but that the record of the hearing had been made either by the Solicitor or by the court reporter.

The hearing was adjourned to the courtroom for the women to Frank's office. This according to the contention of the defense, involved

Frank exactly as much as the previous question and answer would have done.

ulty about the other movements at the

Girls, Rival for Man, To Paint His Picture, Best One to Win Him

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The romance of a painting duel in which two young girls students of the Art Institute are to each paint the picture of the man they love, the best picture to win the man as a life partner, became known to-day.

Miss Leisha Shaw, of Texarkana,

East Texas, and Ruth of Columbus, Georgia, are the contestants.

The identity of the man is kept secret,

but it is admitted he is a rich Texas rancher.

"You see, he can't decide which one of the girls declared to-day he loves best," said Ruth.

The man says he is perfectly contented to decide the question this way."

NEW METHODS IN CITY SANITARY WORK URGED

Survey Report Points Out Defects in Present System—No Individual Blamed.

admitting that the report of the experts who made a survey of health and school conditions in Atlanta contained recommendations of changes in the work of the City Health Department. President William L. Moore of the Chamber of Commerce, however, said yesterday that the discussion of any of the members of the Board of Health is urged, or that they are selected individually.

The criticism of the experts direct against the health department is not directed at any individual, but at the members, or on the inadequate equipment and facilities which are required to handle their work.

Improvements Urged.

Is it true that the report recommends improvements in organization and administration of the Board of Health and a reorganization of the entire department?" Mr. Moore asked.

"Certain improvements in organization and administration are recommended," he replied, "but it is not true that the abolition of the board is recommended. The members of the board are all good men, and no abolition is recommended."

It is understood that the report says health conditions in Atlanta are far from being the best in the country, and are not as good as those in the principal cities throughout the country.

The criticism, however, though Mr. Moore will neither admit nor deny the rumor, that the city health department is not as efficient as the Board of Health and a reorganization of the entire department?" Mr. Moore asked.

Report Not In.

Radical changes in the methods of the sanitary department are said to be recommended in the report.

The report of the survey of Atlanta's school system, which was made by Dr. Charles E. Light, was submitted along with their survey of health, and probably will arrive in Atlanta soon.

This portion of the report is awaiting action by the Board of Education, members of the Chamber of Commerce, and others of the recent expansion of almost unbearable conditions in the schools.

The "sailor stocking" is so called because it is modeled after the after-dinner stockings of the sailors.

It is another way of saying that there's something new in stockings every day. Yesterday it was the monkey stocking, the day before that the sailor stocking, and the day before that the "sailor stocking."

Today it is the "sailor stocking" because it is modeled after the after-dinner stockings of the sailors.

Look at the above picture, then close your eyes and recall the last time you had a southern exposure of the "sailor stocking."

It might have been the "sailor stocking" because it does have a very much as that which you have seen.

It was the "sailor stocking" because it was.

PAGE'S 'THE SOUTHERNER' BITTERLY ARRAIGNED BY HEAD OF GEORGIA U. D. C.

ATLANTA, Oct. 22.—The nine-month anniversary of the Southern Daughters of the Confederacy was stirred to-day by a scathing statement read by the State president, Mrs. Walter D. Lamar, who regretted most bitterly the publication of a book written by Walter H. Page himself a Southerner and at present Ambassador at the Court of St. James, under appointment of President Woodrow Wilson, a native of the South.

Following the reading of the statement by Mrs. Lamar, a motion was carried to present a resolution of the matter on the floor. There was a debate that lasted more than an hour, during the winter was held in committee, with a report Thursday, when it was decided to live it will issue.

Mrs. Lamar's Criticism.

Mrs. Lamar's statement was in part as follows:

In a brief called "The Southern White Page," now Ambassador at the Court of St. James, exploits opinions concerning the South and her people which will boast his high hopes and might bring him to his self respecting people.

He is a Southern man, educated at a Southern college, and a member of the alias of Nichols Worth, he writes, who, in his book, "The Southern White Page," now Ambassador at the Court of St. James, exploits opinions concerning the South and her people which will boast his high hopes and might bring him to his self respecting people.

The morning session to-day was devoted to reports of the various efforts made by the various delegations to the convention at the Commercial Club.

The convention sessions are being held in the First Baptist Church. The attendance will doubtless make a new record.

It is the opinion of the Southern Daughters of the Confederacy and the Georgia State Chapter that there was no intellectuality among the women of the South, and that the affairs in Virginia, which he claims, were the cause of the South's return after the desolation of the war was "humble."

In a paper called "A Distinguished Southern Woman, who writes under the pseudonym of Nichols Worth, in her book, she replies that the attacks on her book are made only by her enemies, and that this division instruct their presenters to make their representations at the general convention, and I trust that similar resolutions representing the views of your unanimous approval.

Flames Climb Walls Of Shedd's Home

Heavy damage was done to the residence of Robert F. Shedd, 20 East Linden, Atlanta, when a fire, started when the house caught fire from the furnace in the basement.

The fire started in the basement between the walls, searing the timbers there.

Shedd, who was at home, discovered it and gave the alarm.

It was fully half an hour before the fire was out.

The entire basement was a mass of flames when the firemen arrived.

BOARD VOTES TO CLEAR ACCUSED POLICEMAN

But Beavers Is Asked to Give Reprimand—Women Tell of "Persecution."

EXPECT A. B. & A. MANAGEMENT SHAKE-UP

President Miller of N. O. & G. N. and Trainload of Officials Off on Inspection Trip

Keeps Wedding on June 28 Secret to Get California Trip

Friends of Miss Louise Allen, daughter of Mrs. E. C. Allen, No. 60 Hurt Street, learned Wednesday of her secret marriage to T. P. Thomason, former manager of the Dalton Hotel, on June 28.

Last summer she was promised to California by her brother, W. S. Allen, general manager of the L. & N. railroad, and was to have been prompted, however, to become the wife of Mr. Thomason.

She solved the problem by marrying Mr. Thomason on June 28 and then taking a train to California, where she had taken the trip to California

A man who a shake-up is imminent in the management of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad, were freely circulated in Atlanta railroad circles Wednesday.

That the new management of the railroad is to be headed by a man connected with the Great Northern Railroad, who also is receiver for the Buffalo and Sarasota, and a prominent Eastern railroad man, was the news from Atlanta.

Speculation of the acquisition, Miss Benton, eyes snapping and face flushed from excitement came from the lips of the acquiring party, declared.

The cause of this outrage is yet to be heard. The good people of Macon are with me and in sympathy with my sister who was wronged, but the act of an unscrupulous man connected with a corrupt police department. It's a dirty shame and a disgrace to Atlanta.

That which caused the charges to be preferred is alleged to have been committed April 23 last when Patrician Wood, who lived next door to Mrs. Miller in Atlanta, was near East Paul street, supposed to have dug a ditch which drained the water from his yard into Mrs. Southard's.

The man says he is innocent and he placed her under arrest, picking her up when she refused to go with him and carrying her to the street where he held her until the patrol arrived.

Mrs. Mable Hardman, who lives in the same neighborhood, told the commissioners that she fainted when she heard the news of Mrs. Southard's. She was being taken to the patrol wagon.

Mrs. Southard said the lead of the investigation always went with her when she stated that he was "too busy on the Pinigan case to talk to her."

Cotton Shipping Hurt By Rousters' Strike

MURKIN, Tenn., Oct. 22—Complaining that extreme low water of the Mississippi River has increased the distance to the river banks, the distance to the water, and the distance to the market, the shipping interests have been forced to ship cotton through the port of New Orleans, which has been closed for a month.

Formerly the river banks 16 miles apart, but lack of crews prevents its shipment.

News Butcher Held As a "Blind Tiger"

KILLERS, Oct. 22.—In rounding up seven blind tigers Sheriff Hunter arrested Paul Clements, a news butcher on the Southern Railway, who, it is alleged, was plying his trade on the train. He was carrying a pistol and was caught making change for whiskey. He was taken off the train and lodged in jail here.

Four other tigers were trapped a few hours before.

Boatswain, Knocked From Vessel, Dying

SAVANNAH, Oct. 22.—Cleveland Noland, a man on British cotton steamer, is in the Marine Hospital and not expected to live long.

In directing the loading of his vessel a cable slipped and knocked Noland from the deck. The sailor was struck against a hatch, breaking several bones.

Mrs. Mary E. English To Be Buried To-day

The funeral of Mrs. Mary E. English, 56 years old, who died Tuesday at the home of her son, George W. Thomas, 25, Lakeside, was held Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The body was taken to Griffin, where burial will take place at 2 p.m.

Mrs. English was a daughter of John Harper, one of the State's earliest settlers. She spent her early life in the country, but when she came to Atlanta to live with her son, she became a member of the Atlanta Automobile and Automobile Association.

Mrs. C. W. Williams, forty-seven years old, died in a private sanatorium in Atlanta on Saturday. She resided at No. 62 Pum Street. Mrs. Williams is survived by her husband, W. C. Williams, 50, and a son, Burton Williams. The funeral was held at the Greenberg & Bunnell undertaking establishment and will be taken to Athens for funeral services.

Charles Q. Standard, forty-three years old, died Tuesday night, was buried Wednesday morning. Following funeral services at the Barker-Simmons Chapel at 2 o'clock, Standard, a member of the First Central Baptist Church, read the service. Mr. Standard resided at 2020 Peachtree street. He is survived by his wife, J. D. Levi, of Louisville, Ky.

AWAIT DECISION IN BARLOW DIVORCE

Woman Accepts Challenge of Former Husband to Have Contempt Case Reopened.

Interest in the Barlow divorce suit centers around the decision of Judge Littleton, who will sit at the Barker Girl's trial at Lumpkin Tuesday. At the conclusion of the hearing the judge announced that on account of illness he would not make his decision for several days.

Reopened contempt proceedings, which were recently withdrawn, featured the challenge. They were reopened by consent and will be heard at the April term of the court.

The arguments Tuesday was a will of cession to the Superior Court from the ruling of the Ordinary Court of Lumpkin, which had given the mother to the father with instructions that he should be allowed to see the girl.

Attorneys Burton Smith and Frank H. Johnson, who represented Mrs. Barlow, were represented by Attorneys C. L. Hudson, Neither and R. L. Boggs.

Barlow's general manager, J. L. Edwards, train manager, and W. W. Thompson, general claim agent, were present.

When the hearing was reopened it was learned when Attorney Hudson said that he wished Mr. Barlow were in the courtroom.

Barlow's agreement then the proceedings were set down for hearing at the April term.

NEW METHODS IN CITY SANITARY WORK URGED

admitting that the report of the experts who made a survey of the health and school conditions in Atlanta last summer, came to the conclusion that there were no changes in the work of the City Health Department. President Wm. L. Moore, of the Chamber of Commerce, vigorously denied yesterday that the dismissal of and the letting go of the head of the Bureau of Health, is urged, or that they are criticized individually.

"No name is mentioned in that portion of the report we have received," Mr. Moore said. "The document is not nearly so startling and sensational as the public has been led to believe."

He said the experts directed against the health department is not based on personal inefficiency of the members of the department, but on the equipment and facilities with which they are required to handle their work.

Improvement Urged.

"It is recommended that we recommend the abolition of the present Board of Health and a reorganization of the entire department," Mr. Moore was asked.

"Opinions and methods are recommended," he replied, "but it is not true that the experts are urging any change."

The members of the present board, he said, are doing their best.

It is understood that the report may recommend that Atlanta be put below conditions in cities of similar size.

It is generally understood, though Mr. Moore will not admit it, that the report of the city sanitary conditions is taken sharply to task, and that the experts are urging the disposing of garbage, particularly its habit of allowing loaded, uncovered carts to roll about the city, and the heavy school traffic when traffic is at its heaviest.

School Report No In.

Indicates class in the methods of the sanitary department are paid to by the report that the city sanitary department is taken sharply to task, and that the experts are urging the disposing of garbage, particularly its habit of allowing loaded, uncovered carts to roll about the city, and the heavy school traffic when traffic is at its heaviest.

Wilson Signs Urgent Deficiency Measure

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The President to-day signed the urgent deficiency bill.

He was in doubt at first about placing his signature on the measure owing to the clause which provided that deputies collectors of internal revenue would be exempt from the civil service act, but finally decided to accept it.

Cheap and Easily Made, But Ends a Cough Quickly

How to Make It in the Very Best Cough Remedy at Home, Fully Guaranteed.

This plan of cough syrup is easily made at home and saves you about $2 as compared with ordinary cough remedies.

Take a pint of water, add a pint of whirling cough—quickly, and is specially good for children, and the whole made strong and households.

Mr. Smith, of Atlanta, says: "Take a pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes, add a pint of honey, and add the syrup to it in a pint bottle, and add the substance to the water, and drink 2 or 3 glasses, or two or three hours. Tastes good."

The syrup is a good one, and gives almost instant relief. It stimulates the appetite, and gives a healthy—both excellent features.

Now, as perhaps you know, is a very valuable time for coughing, and the white pine bark extract, rich in quinine, is a valuable addition to the syrup.

No other preparation will do the work of this syrup. In this mixture, although aromatic balsam is used, it is not of the sugar syrup, it deodorizes.

These remedies are used in the United States and Canada now use this plan, and the results are excellent. This plan has often been imitated, but the old plan of the old time has not been equalled. It has low cost and quick results, and is a good one.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with the syrup, and you can get it from Mr. Smith, or will get it for you. If not, from the Piney Company, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

SIDELIGHTS on GEORGIA POLITICS

By JAMES B. NEVIN

Governor John M. Slaton returned yesterday from Knoxville, where he was a guest of honor on Monday of the annual Cottonseed Exposition, being held there.

Monday night the Governor and Mrs. Slaton were entertained by Colonel and Mrs. Robert J. Lowry of Atlanta. Colonel Lowry has the services of the Knoxville big show very much at heart, and has done a great deal to help him, as well as his sentimental interests.

Governor Slaton speaks in the highest terms of praise of the exposition.

The Knoxville show is one of the most successful and employes a great advantage in the marketing of cotton.

The Governor was the guest of honor at the opening of the exposition, and was present at the opening of the cotton building.

The Governor is as handsome as he is old, saying very little, but

Gov. Brown was the game of politics as well as anything, and far better than some.

Gov. Georgia, who predict confidence, that Slaton will be a much more of the cotton building.

The Governor is one of the most beautiful fighters ever seen, and the cotton building was ahead of the fashion of a former Chief Magistrate.

If persistent rumor counts for anything, the question of State-wide prohibition, as it now exists in Georgia, is to be a very live issue in at least the next few months of the State, when it comes to electing a new legislature next year.

In Bibb County and in Floyd, DeKalb, and in other parts of the State, and anti-State-wide, and if those two forces meet, it will be a very interesting battle.

The Governor is a man who will venture to predict what might be.

Certain it is, if those who talk of prohibition in Georgia, and the happenings in New Mexico and in Macon have served to draw the very best minds of the people who advocate an absolutely and utterly "dry" state.

ELECTIONS WILL BRING CRISIS IN MEXICO

Neither of Five Candidates Can Get Majority October 26. So Huerta Will Remain Dictator.

Special Cable to The Atlanta Georgian.
MEXICO CITY, Oct. 21.—General Alvaro Obregon, who has been selected to succeed Huerta as President, will be sworn in on October 26, as scheduled. This means Huerta will remain in office after that date.

There are five parties in the field with candidates. In view of the internal situation, it is certain no candidate can receive a majority. The most likely to succeed is the successful candidate must receive a majority.

It is expected that the crisis in the relations between Mexico and the United States will come soon after the election. Announcement will be made that the selected have failed to come to an agreement, and Huerta will continue in office as constitutional President ad interim.

This party is fielded by their predominant constituents, the Catholics.

Pedro Gómez, former Minister of Justice, will have been nominated by the Republicans, but he is in prison on a charge of treason.

The belief is general that the return of Félix Diaz to Mexico City will be the signal for dangerous rioting in the capital.

With the election by six days off few actual preparations have been made for halting on a successful basis the political situation throughout practically the entire republic is controlled by Huerta's military governors.

Merchants Flee Mexico.

Several hundred of a mass sacrifice if General Huerta is overthrown by the United States. Many men and English citizens to-day are leaving Mexico as rapidly as possible and the number of Europeans left here in the last 48 hours, but other foreigners are still here, awaiting their departure, believing they were safe until word was received that most of the rebels were being held as hostages by the rebels at Torreón.

The foreigners are alarmed by relief of the report that the United States will not interfere. The Carthaginians are belligerent. They were tortured and beaten, and the best of a statement by General Car-anza to Los Angeles, Cal., in which he said he would not allow any peace in Mexico while Huerta or any intriguing foreigner reigns.

Mercants Flee Mexico.
Huerta's action in ordering 50 per cent of the foreign-owned concerns to be confiscated caused many of them to say that they will go to the United States. The cost of living, which now is higher than ever before, is the chief reason for the dictator's efforts to fill his treasury.

The edict was issued by Huerta
acting in place of Congress, and approved by him as President.

Paul Potter Silent; Friends Fear Suicide

Special Cable to The Atlanta Georgian.
PARIS, Oct. 21.—The friends of Paul M. Potter, American playwright, who was more mystified by his unexplainable death and his affairs than his biographers, say that the cost of living, which now is higher than ever before, is the chief reason for the dictator's efforts to fill his treasury.

The edict was issued by Huerta
acting in place of Congress, and approved by him as President.

Great Mystery--How Are They Able to Play Football Without a National Commission?

•GEORGIAN SPORTS COVERED by EXPERTS.

MAJOR LEAGUE BALL PLAYERS PLAN REVOLT

Eighty-five Per Cent of Players Agree to Hold Out Until After Commission Meets.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—There is a danger of an open revolt by the members of the ball players' fraternity against the commission this winter, which has come to a head with the season closed something like 85 per cent of the members of the fraternity signed a petition to the commission to make plain that the players' organization would not meet in December.

It is understood that the players' organization will insist on changes in the rule governing players and that a scale of salaries will be voted.

The franchise now has 200 men.

and barring a few of these all have pledged themselves not to sign on with the organization.

Just what position the major leagues will take is not yet made plain.

The cubhouse already is in the way of changes in the rules, and there seems to be a disposition to make them.

On the other hand, the players' organization will insist that the organization is not for the men, and will not be retained.

This would bring about a serious state of affairs, but the players are determined to get proper protection.

They will, however, and they will resort to strong methods to force the clubs to accept the changes.

There is not much of a chance of the club owners giving the players what they want.

There is not a chance for the players to dictate to the owners.

Chairman of the players' of the National Commission, when asked regarding the situation, said: "We are still holding the line.

We know that the players have signed on to a niche not to sign until after the big leagues have set the pace, and we know what the demands they are to make before they will be allowed to do business with the clubs.

There is no such reason why the players have no black coming.

They are protected by the rules, and the clubs will not strike even if we refuse to give their organization recognition."

White Sox Bat Out Victory Over Giants

PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 22.—Tying the score in the sixth inning, the White Sox hammered out a victory over the Giants, 5-4, by hitting a double, triple, eighth inning by bunting a double, triple, and a home run.

The White Sox, who have 94 wins, have no black coming. They are protected by the rules, and the clubs will not strike even if we refuse to give their organization recognition."

White Sox Bat Out Victory Over Giants

Mathewson vs. Jones For Checker Title

PORTLAND, ORE., Oct. 22.—When Mathewson, of the Giants, and Jones, of the White Sox, play a set of games of checkers, the White Sox will be the victors.

The White Sox are the best team in the Northwest Baseball League, for the last two years.

Mathewson claims the title, and Fleder, Jones disputes it.

BILL WAGNER KNOCKED OUT

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 22.—Bill Wagner, of the Giants, was knocked out by the knuckleball of the White Sox in the sixth round here last night.
